HOW MUCH ARE YOU WORTH?

DaystarNIG Daystar-NG Daystarnig

Dada was born in Mango Village, a place of suffering and slavery. Generations before him had endured the same fate, trapped in a life of hardship. Despite his desperate desire to escape, he had no money, connections, or job prospects. Freedom seemed impossible.

Dada knew his situation was about to worsen as he faced the prospect of being auctioned off as a slave. However, on that fateful day, a stranger arrived in the village. Dressed elegantly and exuding kindness, he made an astonishing offer to the slave trader: he would pay for Dada's freedom.

Overwhelmed with gratitude, Dada looked into the stranger's eyes, his tears of joy flowing. He thanked the stranger for his act of kindness, vowing never to forget it. From that moment on, Dada found renewed hope and purpose in life.

This story parallels the actions of Jesus Christ, who paid the price for our freedom from spiritual slavery. Just as the stranger bought Dada's freedom, Jesus paid the ultimate price for us. He took our place in suffering, enabling us to reign in life (Romans 5:17). Through Jesus, we can escape the grip of Satan, our spiritual slave master.

Accepting Jesus as our Savior is akin to acknowledging the stranger's act of liberation. We are set free from a life of bondage and empowered to live in dominion (John 8:36). By embracing Jesus' sacrifice, we receive forgiveness, redemption, and the abundant grace of God.

You have been purchased at a great price (1 Corinthians 6:20), and all that remains is for you to accept Jesus' finished work of salvation. To do so, simply pray: "Dear Lord, I accept that you died for me. I confess you as my Lord and personal Savior. Amen."

Now that you have accepted Christ as your Lord and Saviour, you are a new creature that has not existed before.

To continue to grow, you need to join a Bible-believing church and be a part of the Family of God.

You can as well join any of our expressions at Daystar Christian

Centre. See detailed addresses at the back. We would love to hear from you and be a part of your spiritual growth.

TESTIMONY

The Situation: I rededicated my life to God, who transformed me.

What God Did: All through my university years until early last year, I was never interested in God, nor was I going to church, as I thought God had abandoned me to my problems.

I attended Daystar immediately after the lockdown was eased because I liked a tweet posted by Pastor Sam. I enjoyed the service, but I didn't go back again.

In March of the following year, I reconnected with a friend who coincidentally attends Daystar, and she encouraged me to attend church again and give God a chance, which I did. It was the best decision of my life. I rededicated my life to Christ and immediately started noticing visible progress in my life, cutting down on my excessive habits. Our friendship grew into a relationship, and I knew God had given me the bone of my bone.

Now, here is the icing on the cake. I was frustrated with my job and income and wanted to break into the tech industry. So, that was all I prayed for during the end-of-year prayers of that same year. After hundreds of applications, I got an interview with a US-based company in February, followed by two more discussions, and three weeks later, I was offered a role with them, earning five times my previous income. It didn't end there; by December next year, my lovely friend (now wife) and I tied the knot in Holy Matrimony.

I'm so grateful to God for having mercy on me despite all my years of running away. He only wanted to show His love and show me that He is truly God. It has been a total transformation beyond my wildest imagination or dreams.
