FREE AND NOT CONDEMNED!

John 8:31-33

■ Pastor Nike Adeyemi

From the scripture above, it is clear that your true freedom stems from the truth you know. When we do not know the truth, we walk in ignorance and the enemy cheats us. When we know the truth about our true identity in Christ, His full redemption plans for us, we walk in complete freedom. Also, if you are in denial about your situation, experiencing true freedom will be far.

Jesus didn't come to condemn us, not at all. He came for our redemption. The Pharisees of His days came to find fault all His teachings but Jesus maintained it is no longer about the Law but Love. Christ came to fulfill the higher law which is LOVE. In the kingdom of God, LOVE supersedes LAW.

In John 8, the woman that was caught in adultery was condemned by the crowd but Christ gave her a true freedom. Not that Jesus excused the act, but He never condemned the doer. As Christians, your enemies may want to condemn you but keep the right perspective that Christ came for your freedom. John 8:33, when we understand our freedom in Christ, we will no longer be slaves to sin. Christ makes us as believers free from the control of sin and Satan.

Christ's response to the accusers of the woman was not condemnation but a true sense of freedom for her. The law doesn't set free but it is for punishment. It is love that truly sets free. Christ paid the price for every pain and shame. Our redemption doesn't give us latitude to continue in sin, but offers us the inner power to do the right things always. When we walk in love, which is the higher law, we will be seeking to please God in all our ways. We have grace not to walk or live in sin.

Our accusers as Christians cannot resist the statement of Christ about us. Don't sit down weeping because of anyone's statement about you. Seek to know what Christ intends for you which is freedom not condemnation, John 8:11. We must constantly abide in Christ, do His word and express pure love to others in manifestation of our true freedom. Jesus kind of freedom is not for the pretenders but the humble. We must choose to show the kind of love Christ demonstrated. He lived for others; we should live our lives for others as well.

INSTANT HEALING BY THE WORD!

A Muslim neighbour of mine shared this testimony with me when I told her I worship at Daystar Christian Centre. According to her, she had always experienced excruciating pains all over her body. While watching Pastor Sam on TV, she said at the end of his ministration, he urged listeners or anyone watching who desired healing to lay hands on any part of their bodies where they were experiencing pains. Though she is a Muslim, she followed the instruction and received her healing INSTANTLY. Praise the lord! - O.T
